

“Introducing the modern concept of human resources management”

Project Title: Introducing the modern concept of human resources management

Implementing Partner: DCAF

Total Project Value: EUR 1,449,000

Raised level of awareness and improved internal communication related to human resources management. - Identification of the HRM functions in the MoI of the Republic of Serbia - Capacity building for MoI unit experts which carry out the functions of human resources management. - Development of policy

Project Results: framework of human resources management for the future reform. - Development of guidelines for the organizational structure and the function of the Unit for Human Resource Management. - Capacity building in relation to international standards in the field of human resources management. - Project activities effectively and efficiently implemented

Project Duration: 34 months. Project was completed in September, 2014.